International Recognition

The Voice Canada

All 4 chairs rotate as the coaches hear MISTYSA's voice.

With the impact MISTYSA made in the "Blind Auditions", she became the first Latin American to successfully participate in The Voice Canada, and moved on to the "Battle Rounds", where, after two of the coaches fought to "steal" her, she went on to the "Knockouts". MISTYSA becomes increasingly well-known in Quebec, and her career continues to flourish.

FNAC France

MISTYSA is chosen "New Talent of Nu Soul" by the FNAC in France, after putting her debut album, "MACUMBA", up for sale in its Parisian stores and its website.

The FNAC organizes the official Album release of MACUMBA in Paris, in the performance hall of the Forum des Halles FNAC.

Chilean Media

"One of those voices which are hard to forget, with a Gospel character, a Soul attitude, and an R&B body." - Rockaxis Magazine

"Mistysa is a Black music manual, with her vocal resources. She can easily move from Blues, Pop, Soul to Gospel, wandering shamelessly through all these genres with flawless execution and a backing band that borders on virtuosity." - Mesón Nerudiano

"@Mistysa surprised us with an extraordinary voice that fuses Blues, Soul, Gospel and Funk, with Latin American influences. During the interview, she explained how she captivates her audience and how she interprets Aretha Franklin's hits with her own music, shaping Mistysa's unmistakable show." - BioBioTV
